SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

IMDA Summit (Postponed)

The IMDA Steering Committee has decided to postpone the IMDA Summit to a future date so that it can be held along with another event that many people will be going to anyway. This decision was prompted by feedback from many people that they have problems in this economic environment getting approval for meetings and trips.

We are considering such events as IFA or NAB (both in September) as possible times to hold the Summit. We will keep you informed.

Please let us know if you have any questions or comments on this.

Future Meeting Schedule

June 2009: IMDA Technical Committee and Working Group Meeting in New York City or London (to be determined)

September 2009: Steering and Technical Committee meetings at IFA in Berlin

January 2010: General Assembly Meeting at CES in Las Vegas
